W.S. St. Martin and P.A. Vessey, surviving partners of the firm of St. Martin, Davis & Vessey, and Perry T.
Coleman, Minnie Vessey and Margaret A. Vessey, made Parties
Plaintiff in open Court on the trial of said cause, Plaintiffs,

vs

The County of Anoka, Defendant.

It is hereby stipulated and agreed by and between the parties hereto, by their respective attorneys, that the above entitled action was been in all things compromised, settled, and all matters in relation thereto and to the contract on Ditch 41 have been compromised, settled and adjusted, and that in consideration thereof, and in consideration of certain payments made by defendant to plaintiffs and their assigns this day, pursuant to said compromise and settlement, in full settlement and satisfaction thereof, the said action is hereby settled, compromised and dismissed, with prejudice but without costs or disbursements to either party.

Dated July 2nd, 1910.

Attorney for plaintiffs,

Charles A. Frost
Attorney for defendant.
