And that the annexed plat, marked "MOUNT PLEASANT CEMETERY" is a correct representation of said survey; that the location and dimensions of all streets and alleys, the location, dimensions and numbers of all lots, and the location and letter of all blocks are correctly given and designated on said plat, that all dimensions shown on said plat denote feet and decimals of a foot; that all lots marked "R" are reserved for decorative purposes in connection with the use of said land as a cemetery; that a stone monument to govern future surveys has been placed at the Southeast corner of said Cemetery, the location of which monument is correctly shown on the plat.

Further affiant saith not.
